

I am in full support of Satellite Radio. This has been the best source of information for us in years. They provide quality entertainment and information for the people and we dont have to worry about changing the channel to not hear commercials all the time.